West Allis Neighborhood Associations

What Is A Neighborhood Association?

A neighborhood association is a group of people who identify with a common area, share common goals and concerns and are organized as a member-based group open to everybody within the neighborhood. Through their collective energy and planning, members develop the stability, credibility and political influence necessary to be an effective force in building a stronger neighborhood.

Mayor Dan Devine

"As we continue to move West Allis forward, active neighborhood associations will be a vital component in developing a safe and vibrant community."

What Do Neighborhood Associations Do?

Neighborhood Associations . . .

- Help identify challenges and concerns
- Support change and improvement efforts
- Help resolve conflicts
- Provide volunteers for community initiatives
- Represent the neighborhood as a whole to elected officials
- Find resources to make the neighborhood a better place to live

Benefits of Neighborhood Associations:

Neighborhood Associations . . .

- Have real and lasting impacts on neighborhood programs (crime, traffic, parking, public space improvements)
- Grow demand for future home buyers
- Foster effective communication link with City Departments
- Receive funding for neighborhood improvement projects
